

Bonaire

Dutch Caribbean

The port

The original downtown buildings along Kaya Grandi, circa late 1800 to early 1900's, traditionally housed families upstairs and shops below. Some buildings have been renovated and restored. Bonaire's picturesque Kaya Grandi presents an array of quality shops and services.

Stroll Kaya Grandi, window shop, have a haircut, buy some perfume, or find that perfect t-shirt, postcard, or hat. Be awed by the creations offered by Bonaire's unique jewelry shops. Enjoy an ice-cream or a delicious meal.

Things to do

Wind, water, sand and sun make for excellent swimming, sunbathing, snorkeling, windsurfing and SCUBA opportunities on Bonaire. In fact, this special combination creates more exciting activities guests won't want to miss.

Wind, water, sand and sun are also ideal for kite boarding, sailing and land sailing. In addition, anglers enjoy the cool winds while spending a day on the water deep sea fishing.

Beaches

Bonaire offers a variety of secluded beaches that allow visitors to enjoy the island at its best! Many well known spots dot the western coastline and lac to the east. Among them are Thousand Steps and Sorobon Beach.

Food & Drinks

Dining on Bonaire is truly an international experience. Award winning chefs delight in creating traditional fare by adding Caribbean flavors. The cuisine of myriad ethnicities is represented. They include Dutch, Columbian, Chinese, Italian, Surinam, Indonesian, French, German and more. Delicious kuminda krioyo (local food) consisting of different types of stews, fresh fish, funchi, rice and more is also available.

In addition to great foods, most restaurants offer full bars with wine offerings from all over the world. Homemade desserts are found in restaurants and different bakeries around Bonaire.
